Clark, representing a group of Lomita friends, presented the two Georges with gold watches in honor of their Eagle rank. ## "IN THE GREASE"

Notes Gleaned While the Oil Editor Bumps Around Proven Territory

Standard is swabbing Marble Lease No. 6, important key well on the northwest corner of the property. The well came in temporarily without packer in the hole and stopped flowing. A packer was put in and swabbing commenced. Marble No. 24 of the Petroleum Securities company, offsetting Marble Lease No. 6, is producing better than 1000 barrels a day. Lease No. 6 was drilled to 3830 feet.

The Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil company is ready to bail Del Amo No. 12 for a water test. The well was cemented at 3000 feet. It is located "way out west" on the old Redondo road, offsetting Standard's Edlinwood No. 1.

The Shell Oil company has drilled Bleumie No. 1 to 2285 feet.

The Shell office in the local field has had charge of Reyes No. 2, the wild well of Dominguez Hill. For three days this well spouted oil and gas over most of the adjacent countryside. The gas was roaring out at a rate of 20,000,000 cubic feet a day. The oil flow was estimated at 4500 barrels. The company pumped 330 pounds of cement, sawdust and rope into the tubing, but failed to check the flow. Thursday the well sanded up and stopped gushing.

March No. 3 of the Shell company is back on production, having made 736 barrels in the first 20 hours of its renewed flow.

Standard's Kettler No. 1 is making 100 barrels a day, about half of which is mud and water.

Shell's eastern outpost, Dolores No. 1, formerly Weston No. 1, east of Harbor boulevard, has been drilled to 1390 feet.

A collapsed casing has caused no end of trouble at the Standard Oil company's Interstate No. 3. Interstate Nos. 1 and 2 are making about 500 barrels each.

The C. C. M. O. has located Kettler 20, 21 and 22 on the Kettler lease. They are center line wells.

Shell is getting down with Kettler No. 10, located not far north of Standard's Kettler No. 1 in Lomita. In view of Standard's tough luck with Kettler No. 1, the Shell well is being watched with interest. It is down 2110 feet.

Torrance No. 13 of the Superior Oil company is off production, after having made 130 barrels of 20 gravity clean oil on the pump. Selby and Root have erected a new rig on the brick plant lease, not far south of Superior's 13 and Mohawk's wet well.

"Nothing new" tells the story of Shell's Keystone No. 1, at which the crew is still making mechanical changes.

The Santa Fe has seven wells near completion. Kettler No. 11 is being drilled in; No. 16 has received a water shutoff O. K.; No. 13 and No. 3 are being washed out, prior to swabbing. The first producer on the second tier of wells on the Torrance lease, north of the old Redondo road, will be in soon. No. 42 and No. 50 are standing cemented. No. 42, second tier well, south of Carson street, is being drilled in the oil sand.

The Standard Oil company has located Marble Lease No. 12 on the northeast corner of the property.

Bernard Le Mohn has located an offset to Standard's Dominguez No. 4.

The proceeds were $75, and the ladies wish to thank all those who so kindly contributed to make the bazaar such a success.

FIVE NEW WELLS ADD 4500 BBLs. TO PRODUCTION

Old Peterson-Barker Rig Finally Drills A Real Hole

Close to 4500 barrels new production was added to the daily production report of the oil field here during the past two days, five new wells having been brought in.

The southwestern territory contributed the two largest producers of the week, when the Petroleum Securities company and the Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil company brought in Marble No. 16 and Torrance No. 40, respectively.

The new Doheny producer is in the center of the southern edge of the Marble fee property. Drilled to 3800 feet, it is making 1150 barrels of 26 gravity oil, with 340 pounds of gas pressure on the tubing.

The new Santa Fe producer broke all records for flush production during its first six hours as a flowing well, during which period it flowed 550 barrels. Beamed down, it is now making 1050 barrels.

The Standard Oil company completed Marble Fee No. 6 for 750-barrel production. The well was drilled to 3810 feet.

Shell's March No. 4 went on production Thursday morning and is yielding 900 barrels a day.

The R. K. Drilling company, completed its well at Pine and Eschelman streets in East Lomita at 3775 feet for a yield of 600 barrels a day. This well was drilled by Tuck Edens' men in quick time. The rig was the one which was used for so many months on the old Peterson-Barker wildcat in the Torrance Industrial tract near the Union Tool company's plant.

A motion picture company was out on location. In one of the big scenes was a motley crowd of extras used as revenue officers who, with machine guns and sawed-off shotguns, were to fire on the supposed rum smugglers, who were to fire back again.

"Shoot at will!" shouted the director finally. The rattle of blank musketry filled the air. A gun wad whistled past the cameraman's ear and scraps of cartridge fell at his feet.

"Hey, there!" he yelled. "The director said shoot at will. My name is George!"

on the subject, "The American Constitution."

The contractor is installing seats in the new high school auditorium, which will be ready for the dedication meeting on Friday night, May 2.

Machinery and equipment for the school shops has been ordered. Included in the order are two lathes, two drill presses, a milling machine, forge, air compressor, high speed hacksaw, jointer, table saw, band saw, benches and tools.

Mrs. Clarence Keifer and daughter Barbara, of Kern court, were recent guests of friends in San Pedro.

Mr. and Mrs. Jere Van Ahdle of Sartori street were entertained recently by Los Angeles friends.

LOMITA COMMUNITY CHURCH

At the morning service S. D. Chase, recently elected ruling elder of this church, was solemnly ordained by the pastor and installed into office. L. J. Hunter, re-elected ruling elder, was reinstated into office. The congregation signified their acceptance of these brethren as spiritual officers of the church, by raising their right hands.

"Scriptural Sons of God" was the theme of the morning sermon, from the text, "As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believed on his name."

The Jews of our Lord's day were the children of God by virtue of their descent from Abraham, but they were not the spiritual sons of God, because they refused to accept Jesus Christ as their Messiah. The prodigal son was the son of his father in the far country, wasting his substance in riotous living. He was without the favor and blessing of that sonship until he returned to his father. Our birth, our rank, our wealth, our position in society, our diligence and our success do not save us and make us spiritual sons of God. Only loving and loyal acceptance of Jesus Christ will do that. "As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God."

After the morning message the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed.

In the evening the church was favored with a visit of twelve laymen of the First Baptist church of San Pedro. These men gave earnest and emphatic testimonies to their joy and victory in the Christian life. They had distributed cards of invitation during the afternoon and a large congregation was present to hear them. The main address was given by Mr. Pearson, on the Jewish Passover, its meaning and its symbolic relation to the gospels of the New Testament. The pastor was glad to have these men confirm the preaching of the gospel by their personal testimony to its power in their lives.

The Christian Endeavor meeting was a helpful one, led by Glenn Hammock, the topic being "My Decisions, and What They Have Meant to Me."
